

We perform background checks through a company called ProtectMyMinistry. Using your social security number and other information they research court records under your current address and previous addresses. By filling out and turning in the application form you are giving us approval to run this background check. No direct contact with children is allowed without this check first taking place.